10/26/2016	53	(In Chambers) ORDER RE: MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER 47 Motion Hearing held before Magistrate Judge Rozella A. Oliver. Before the Court are a Motion for Issuance of a Protective Order Limiting Production of Documents ("Motion") (Mot., Dkt. No. 47) and the Parties' Joint Stipulation regarding the same (Joint Stip., Dkt. No. 47-1). Both parties filed supplemental memoranda in support of the Motion (Pl.'s Suppl. Mem., Dkt. No. 48; Def.s Suppl. Mem., Dkt. No. 49.) as well as supporting declarations (Dkt. Nos. 47-2, 47-3, 47-4, 50). The Court heard argument on the pending motion on October 26, 2016. In sum, because the Court concludes that federal law and not California state law applies to define the scope of any privilege that applies in this case, the Court ORDERS as follows: (1) The discussion of whether an opt-in provision for the disclosure of individuals' medical information is moot, as the parties only discuss this within the context of California law, and federal cases do not require it; (2) An AEO provision is not warranted here, unless a party will be required to produce highly sensitive business information such as a trade secret or sensitive financial information; and (3) State Fund is not permitted to redact its internal records as the protections provided by a protective order obviate the need for the proposed redactions. 47 (SEE ORDER FOR FURTHER DETAILS) Court Recorder: CS-10/26/2016.
